

LETTS CONSULT

CHAMPION OF INCLUSIVITY AWARD

LETTS CONSULT is committed to helping businesses and communities accomplish meaningful progress in building cultures of diversity and inclusivity by sharing best practices and highlighting businesses and individuals who are making an impact.

On September 18-20, 2022, LETTS CONSULT will hold their annual State of the Woman 2022 Executive Women's Conference. A highlight of the conference will be a dinner celebration on Monday night, September 19, 2022, where a business or individual who has made significant contributions to the progress of equality for all, will be recognized for their efforts with the Champion of Inclusivity award. (Additional conference details are posted on our website www.letts-consult.com.)

To be considered for this Award, please submit the following information via email to info@letts-consult.com no later than August 15, 2022.

- Name of Organization or Individual being nominated
- Contact Name and email address for nominated company or individual
- A 2-3 page recommendation explaining why the business and/or individual should be considered, with overview of programs, policies and accomplishments
- Name and Contact information for person submitting nomination/submission

All nominated candidates will be evaluated on their programs, practices and results that have been achieved through specific and measurable efforts to create a meaningful environment where people from all backgrounds, cultures, races, sex or sexual orientation, or disabilities are equally valued and respected and given equal opportunities for success. LETTS CONSULT believes that the future of our country and of future generations is dependent on the acceptance and respect for all and looks forward to recognizing true leadership in the workplace and communities.

The Advisory Board - LETTS CONSULT, will select and notify the three finalists by September 1, will share their stories and announce the finalist at the Dinner Celebration on Monday, September 19, 2022 at the State of the Woman 2022 conference.

For further details or questions, please contact Gail Letts at gletts@letts-consult.com.